

Instructions for Using the Fax-Back Service

The following documents on tuberculosis can be ordered from the CDC Fax Information Service. The number to call to order these documents is (404) 332-4565. At the prompt, enter up to five of the document numbers listed below. When you have entered all the documents you wish to receive, enter your fax number. You will receive the fax within 30 minutes. No cover sheet will be included with the fax. Below is a listing of the tuberculosis fax sheets:

Non-Technical Information for the General Public

Fax Sheet Identification Number	Fax Sheet Title
250010	Tuberculosis: General Information

Technical Information For Health-Care Providers

Fax Sheet Identification Number	Fax Sheet Title
250101	TB Infection vs. TB Disease
250102	Diagnosis of TB Infection and TB Disease
250110	Treatment of Tuberculosis Infection (Preventive Therapy)
250111	Treatment of Tuberculosis Disease
250112	Management of Persons Exposed to Multidrug-Resistant Tuberculosis
250120	BCG Vaccine
250130	Infection Control
250133	Guidelines for preventing the Transmission of Mycobacterium tuberculosis in Health-Care Facilities, 1994: Possible Questions and Answers
250135	Respiratory Protection
250140	Screening for Tuberculosis
250150	TB Morbidity: United States, 1994

Additional Educational Materials

Fax Sheet Identification Number	Fax Sheet Title
250001	Education and Training Materials Order Form
564011	Self-Study Modules on Tuberculosis